

Five questions with Johnathan Oliver, Human Resources Coordinator

2017 Talent Acquisition Intern

Why did you choose Berry for an internship?

The reason I chose Berry was because of their great community involvement and industry expertise. I first heard about Berry in my Finance class where I learned about their financial history and their community impact through daily news articles, which ultimately shaped my decision to join this amazing organization.

How did you benefit from an internship at Berry?

I met and built relationships with many key executives, directors, managers, and peers. I also had the opportunity to get involved and join different peer groups and committees, such as Spark. The most beneficial part of my internship was having the ability to land my first full-time job right out of college.

Berry's internships are:

Hands-on, cultivating, and remarkable.

What did you enjoy most about your internship at Berry?

Having the ability to connect with various employees from many different levels of the organization and listening to their knowledge about the company was the most impactful experience for me.

I liked interning at Berry because:

They understood my eagerness to learn.

“This is a place that believes in my growth and development.”
